North Torrance In Brief

by A. B.

Kay Matson wishes everyone to know of the Carnival being sponsored by the North Torrance Elementary P-TA. The place—North Torrance Elementary School—Date, April 18—Time, 5 to 9 p.m. Proceeds to go for a free dental clinic for all children living in Torrance. The champion for the dental clinic is Mrs. Millie McBee of 17315 Atkinson, who has spent a tremendous amount of time and effort to make this program possible. Let us all go to the carnival. Call Menlo 42012 for information.

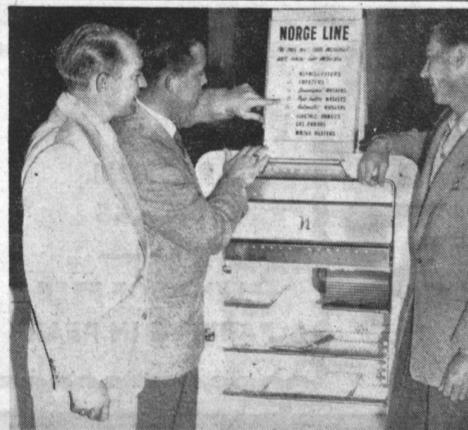

Eldora and Marvin Coats, residing at 2828 W. 174th St., are very happy to have their visitors. She, her mother Fay Trimble from Colorado and he, his brother Robert, a Tech Sergeant who has recently returned after serving 1 1/2 years in Korea. All had a happy time celebrating Merle's 7th birthday.

A wonderful time was had by all attending Edger William's Jr. 21st birthday on April 11. When asked to make a speech, Edger obliged, saying, "Today! I am a man!"

Attention! T.U.T. membership chairman Jim Grey! Edgar is a prospective voter . . . Catch?

Mr. and Mrs. John Gist, of 16432 Illinois Court, have been vacationing in Oklahoma and New Mexico. While in New Mexico, John did some fishing, and the one that got away was th-a-a-at big. Welcome home, folks.

Jim Grey of 16413 Illinois Court is happy to have his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. P. Gruver and her two boys Jackie and Denny, living with him. Denny and Jackie have just returned from Blake, Colo. The vacation trip was sponsored by their aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Woody Reiff,

SPORTS NOTE

Mr. Frank Carpenter, Supt. of Recreation, and Don Bradford, softball instructor, wish everyone to know of the wonderful turnout during Easter week at McMaster Park for the Midget League Softball program. The kids are still raving about the wienie roast they had at Torrance Municipal Park.

In a practice game at McMaster Park, the P. V. Merchants won over Longren Aircraft, 15-10. Bill Baxley of 1812 Belmont Lane put one out of the park. League games start May 12.

At the Torrance Bowl, Carol Williams won 1st place in the Wednesday night sweepstakes Ladies Division Bowling League. Also 3rd place in the Ladies Doubles.
